

Seminar on ZAKAT

In order to welcome the holy month of Ramadan, a seminar is being organized on Zakat Calculation.

Zakat is the third pillar of Islam. It is an Arabic word meaning purification or growth. It is generally thought of as a tax, as the contributor should pay 2.5% of this wealth to charity. However, zakat is valued not by the money given, but by the motive behind it. The intentions for giving Zakat should be pure, and simply about pleasing Allah. There are several verses in Holy Quran which clearly stress the importance of Zakat by identifying it as a philosophy which manages wealth through sharing.
