CIRCULAR

Extension in Transition Period under Syllabus 2016

We are pleased to inform that the competent authority of ICMA Pakistan has considered the request of merging students into syllabus 2016 and approved one (1) year extension in the transition period to complete CMA certification without extra burden of new courses and project of syllabus 2016. Therefore, the new courses and project of syllabus 2016 will not be applicable on merging students upto Spring-2019.

Moreover, those merging students who have completed all courses upto Professional Level as per transitional arrangement are allowed to appear in any or all applicable module(s) at a time, subject to completion of examination eligibility requirements through coaching/ DLP.

All concerned may please note for compliance and inform the students accordingly.
