

PUBLIC SECTOR COMPANIES (CORPORATE GOVERNANCE) RULES, 2013

Amended vide S.R.O. No. 275(I)/2017 dated April 21, 2017

1. Short title, commencement and applicability. — (1) These Rules may be called the Public Sector Companies (Corporate Governance) Rules, 2013.

(2) They shall come into force on 8th August, 2013.

(3) These rules shall apply to all Public Sector Companies, as defined in clause (g) of rule 2.

(4) In the case of listed Public Sector Companies, where there is any inconsistency with the Code of Corporate Governance, the provisions of these rules shall prevail.

2. Definitions.— (1) In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:

- (a) “Board” means board of directors of a Public Sector Company;
- (b) “Commission” means the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan established under the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan Act, 1997 (XLII of 1997);
- (c) “Executive” means an employee of a Public Sector Company, who is entrusted with responsibilities of an administrative or managerial nature, including the Chief Executive and Executive Director;
- (d) “Independent Director” means a Non-Executive Director who is not in the service of Pakistan or of any statutory body or any body or institution owned or controlled by the Government and who is not connected or does not have any other relationship, whether pecuniary or otherwise, with the Public Sector Company, its associated companies, subsidiaries, holding company or directors.

The test of independence principally emanates from the fact whether such person can be reasonably perceived as being able to exercise independent judgment without being subservient to any form of conflict of interest.

A director shall not be considered independent if one or more of the following circumstances exist,-

- (i) he has been an employee of the Public Sector Company, any of its subsidiaries, or holding company during the last two years;
  - (ii) he has, or has had within the last two years, a material business relationship with the Public Sector Company either directly or indirectly, or director of a body that has such a relationship with the Public Sector Company;
  - (iii) he has received remuneration in the two years preceding his appointment as a director or has received additional remuneration excluding retirement benefits from the Public Sector Company apart from director's fee or has participated in the Public Sector Company's share option or a performance-related pay scheme;
  - (iv) he is a close relative (spouse, lineal ascendants and descendants and brothers and sisters) of the company's promoters, directors or major shareholders;
  - (v) he holds cross-directorships or has significant links with other directors through involvement in other companies or bodies; or
  - (vi) he has served on the Board for more than two consecutive terms from the date of his first appointment provided that such person shall be deemed independent director after a lapse of one term;
- (e) "Non-Executive Director" means a director of a Public Sector Company who is not entrusted with responsibilities of an administrative or managerial nature;
- (f) "Ordinance" means the Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984);

- (g) “Public Sector Company” means a company, whether public or private, which is directly or indirectly controlled, beneficially owned or not less than fifty one percent of the voting securities or voting power of which are held by the Government or any instrumentality or agency of the Government or a statutory body, or in respect of which the Government or any instrumentality or agency of the Government or a statutory body, has otherwise power to elect, nominate or appoint majority of its directors, and includes a public sector association not for profit, licensed under section 42 of the Ordinance.

(2) All other terms and expressions used but not defined in these rules shall have the same meaning as are assigned to them in the Ordinance.

2A. Criteria for sound and prudent management. - (1) For the purposes of these rules, the following shall be the criteria for sound and prudent management of a Public Sector Company, which shall be bound to comply with it at all times namely: -

- (a) the business of the Public Sector Company is carried on with integrity, objectivity, due care and the professional skills appropriate to the nature and scale of its activities;
- (b) each director and chief executive officer, by whatever name called, of the Public Sector Company complies with the fit and proper criteria specified under these rules;
- (c) the Public Sector Company is directed and managed by a sufficient number of persons who are fit and proper persons to hold the positions which they hold; and

(d) the Public Sector Company maintains adequate accounting and other records of its business.

(2) Accounting and other records shall not be regarded as adequate for the purposes of these rules unless they are such as_

(a) to enable the business of the Public Sector Company to be prudently managed;

(b) to enable the Public Sector Company to comply with the obligations imposed on it by or under the Ordinance and these rules; and

(c) comply with all professional standards and pronouncements of relevant professional bodies as applicable in Pakistan.

(3) The Public Sector Company shall not be regarded as conducting its business in a sound and prudent manner if it fails to conduct its business with due regard to the legitimate policy objectives and development targets of the Government.

3. Composition of the Board. (1) The Board shall consists of executive and non-executive directors, including independent directors and those representing minority interests with the requisite range of skills, competence, knowledge, experience and approach so that the Board as a group includes core competencies and diversity considered relevant in the context of the Public Sector Company's operations.

(2) The Board shall have at least one-third of its total members as independent directors. The Public Sector Company shall disclose in the annual report non-executive, executive and independent directors.

(3) No Independent Director shall participate in share options or any similar schemes of the Public Sector Company which entitle him to acquire any interest in the Public Sector Company.

(4) No person shall be elected or nominated as a director of more than five Public Sector Companies and listed companies simultaneously, except their subsidiaries.

(5) The Public Sector Company shall, where necessary, take necessary steps to ensure that the minority shareholders, as a class, are facilitated by proxy solicitation, for which purpose the Public Sector Company shall,-

- (a) annex with the notice issued under sub-section (4) of section 178 of the Ordinance, a statement by a candidate from amongst the minority shareholders who seek to contest election to the Board, and it may include a profile of the candidate;
- (b) provide information regarding shareholding structure and copies of the register of members to the candidates representing minority shareholders; and
- (c) on a request by the candidates representing minority shareholders and at the cost of the company, annex to the notice issued under sub-section (4) of section 178 of the Ordinance an additional copy of proxy form duly filled in by such candidates.

(6) The appointing authorities, including the Government and other shareholders, shall apply the fit and proper criteria given in the Annexure in making nominations of the persons for election as Board members under the provisions of the Ordinance:

Provided that the requirement to comply with the fit and proper criteria is without prejudice to compliance with any other requirement for the fitness and propriety of directors issued under any special law, rules or regulations by a sector regulator or authority governing a specified sector.

3A. Term of office and removal of directors. - (1) A director, once appointed or elected under section 180 or section 178 of the Ordinance, shall hold office for a period of three years, unless he resigns or is removed in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance.

(2) Any casual vacancy arising in the Board in the manner specified in sub-section (1) of section 180 of the Ordinance shall be filled in by the directors in accordance with sub-section (2) of section 180 of the Ordinance.

(3) A director nominated by the Government shall hold office in accordance with section 183 of the Ordinance.

(4) The removal of an elected director shall take place in accordance with section 181 of the Ordinance and the removal of a nominated director shall only take place_

- (a) if the director has not performed up to a standard, determined through a performance evaluation;

- (b) if the director is found to be in non-compliance with the provisions of the Ordinance or these rules;
- (c) if the director fails to fulfil his duties and responsibilities under these rules;
- (d) if the director fails to comply with or deliberately ignores policy directives of the Government;
- (e) for any administrative reasons such as posting, transfer, retirement, etc., the Government decides to withdraw the nomination; or
- (f) in the event of his misconduct.

Explanation. - For the purpose of this clause, misconduct includes -

- (i) indulging in a competing professional or personal conflict of interests' situation;
- (ii) using the funds, assets and resources of the Public Sector Company without due diligence and care;
- (iii) failing to treat the colleagues and the staff of the Public Sector Company with respect, or using harassment in any form of physical or verbal abuse;
- (iv) making public statements without authorization by the Board;
- (v) receiving gifts or other benefits from any sources external to the Public Sector Company offered to him in connection with his duties on the Board; or

- (vi) abusing or misusing his official position to gain undue advantage or assuming financial or other obligations in private institutions or for persons which may cause embarrassment in the performance of official duties or functions:

Provided that the notice of removal to a nominated director shall give reasons for removal of the director.

4. Role of the chairman and chief executive and separation of the two positions.- (1) The office of the chairman shall be separate, and his responsibilities distinct, from those of the chief executive.

(2) The chairman of the Board shall,-

- (a) ensure that the Board is properly working and all matters relevant to the governance of the Public Sector Company are placed on the agenda of Board meetings;
- (b) conduct the Board meeting including fixing the agenda; and
- (c) ensure that all the directors are enabled and encouraged to fully participate in the deliberations and decisions of the Board. The chairman has a responsibility to lead the Board and ensure its effective functioning and continuous development, he shall not be involved in day to day operations of the Public Sector Company.

(3) The chief executive is responsible for the management of the Public Sector Company and for its procedures in financial and other matters, subject to the oversight and directions of the Board, in accordance with the Ordinance and these rules. His responsibilities include implementation of strategies and policies approved by the Board, making appropriate arrangements to ensure that funds and resources are properly safeguarded and are used economically, efficiently and effectively and in accordance with all statutory obligations.

(4) The chairman of the Board shall be elected by the Board of Directors of the Public Sector Company. However, this provision shall not apply where chairman of the Board is appointed by the Government.

5. Responsibilities, powers and functions of the Board. - (1)The directors of a Board shall be persons who, in opinion of the Government, shall assist the Public Sector Company to achieve its principal objective and the Board shall accordingly exercise its powers and carry out its fiduciary duties with a sense of objective judgment and in the best interest of the company. This provision shall apply to all directors, including ex officio directors.

(2) The Board shall evaluate the candidates based on the fit and proper criteria and the guidelines specified by the Commission for appointment to the position of the chief executive and recommend at least three candidates to the Government for its concurrence for appointment of one of them as chief executive of the Public Sector Company, except where the chief executive is nominated by the Government. On receiving concurrence or nomination of the Government, as the case may be, the Board shall appoint the chief executive in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance. The Board shall also be responsible for development and succession planning of the chief executive.

(3) The Board shall ensure that obligations to all shareholders are fulfilled and they are duly informed in a timely manner of all material events through shareholder meetings and other communications as are considered necessary.

(4) The Board shall ensure that professional standards and corporate values are in place that promotes integrity for the Board, senior management and other employees in the form of a “Code of Conduct”. The code of conduct shall articulate acceptable and unacceptable behaviors. The Board shall ensure that appropriate steps are taken to communicate throughout the company the code of conduct it sets together with supporting policies and procedures, including posting the same on the company’s website. The Board shall also ensure that adequate systems and controls are in place for the identification and redressal of grievances arising from unethical practices.

(5) The Board shall establish a system of sound internal control, which shall be effectively implemented at all levels within the Public Sector Company, to ensure compliance with the fundamental principles of probity and propriety; objectivity, integrity and honesty and relationship with the stakeholders, in the following manner, namely:-

- (a) the principle of probity and propriety entails that company's assets and resources are not used for private advantage and due economy is exercised so as to reduce wastage. The principle shall be adhered to, especially with respect to the following, namely:-
  - (i) handling of public funds, assets, resources and confidential information by directors, executives and employees; and
  - (ii) claiming of expenses;

- (b) the principle of objectivity, integrity and honesty requires the following, namely:-
  - (i) the directors and executives of a Public Sector Company do not allow a conflict of interest to undermine their objectivity in any of their activities, both professional and private and that they do not use their position in the Public Sector Company to further their private gains in a social or business relationship outside the Public Sector Company. If a situation arise where an actual or potential conflict of interest exists, there shall be appropriate identification, disclosure and management of such conflict of interest;
  - (ii) An appropriate conflict of interest policy is developed and duly enforced. Such a policy shall clearly lay down circumstances or considerations when a person may be deemed to have actual or potential conflict of interest, and the procedure for disclosing such interest:

Explanation: For the purposes of this clause a person shall be deemed to have an interest in a matter if he has any stake, pecuniary or otherwise, in such matter which could reasonably be regarded as giving rise to a conflict between his duty to objectively perform his functions under these rules so that his ability to consider and decide any matter impartially or to give any advice without bias, may reasonably be regarded as impaired;

- (iii) where a director, executive or other employee has a conflict of interest in a particular matter, such person shall play no part in the relevant discussion, decision or action;
  - (iv) a “register of interests” is maintained to record all relevant personal, financial and business interests, of directors and executives who have any decision making role in the company, and the same shall be made publicly available. Such interests may include, for instance, any significant political activity, including office holding, elected positions, public appearances and candidature for election, undertaken in the last five years;
  - (v) a declaration by the directors and executives that they shall not offer or accept any payment, bribe, favor or inducement which might influence, or appear to influence, their decisions and actions; and
  - (vi) the Board shall also develop and implement a policy on “anti-corruption” to minimize actual or perceived corruption in the company; and
- (c) the principle of relationship with stakeholders requires the following, namely:-
- (i) ensuring that the directors and executives uphold the reputation of the company by treating the general public, institutional investors and other stakeholders with courtesy, integrity and efficiency, and ensuring service quality;
  - (ii) ensuring equality of opportunity by establishing open and fair procedures for making appointments and for determining terms and conditions of service. - (vi) Public Sector Companies and corporations;
- (vii) banks, development finance institutions, non-banking finance companies, insurance companies, takaful companies, and modarabas; and
- (viii) shareholders holding five percent or more voting rights in the Public Sector Company (name wise details).

18. Disclosure of Interests by Directors and Officers. – (1) Every director of a Public Sector Company, if he or his relative, is in any way, directly or indirectly, concerned or interested in any contract or arrangement entered into, or to be entered into, by or on behalf of the Public Sector Company shall disclose the nature of his concern or interest at a meeting of the directors.

(2) Any other officer (including the Chief Executive and other Executives) of a Public Sector Company, if he or his relative, is in any way, directly or indirectly, concerned or interested in any proposed contract or arrangement by the company shall disclose to the Company through a communication to the company secretary, the nature and extent of his interest in the transaction. Such officer and the company shall ensure that such information is properly placed and considered by any forum where the matter relating to such proposed contract or arrangement is to be discussed and approved.

(3) If a director or officer has an existing interest, before joining the Board, he shall disclose such interest to the Board, which shall take such facts into consideration for any current and future decision making.

19. Directors' Remuneration. – (1) There shall be a formal and transparent procedure for fixing the remuneration packages of individual directors. No director shall be involved in deciding his own remuneration.

(2) Directors' remuneration packages shall encourage value creation within the company, and shall align their interests with those of the company. These shall be subject to prior approval of shareholders or Board as required by company's Articles of Association. Levels of remuneration shall be sufficient to attract and retain the directors needed to run the company successfully.

(3) Subject to the provisions of the company's Articles of Association, the shareholders or Board shall determine the scale of remuneration for non-executive directors. However, it shall not be at a level that could be perceived to compromise their independence.

(4) The Public Sector Company's annual report shall contain criteria and details of the remuneration of each director, including salary, benefits and performance linked incentives.

20. Responsibility for financial reporting and corporate compliance.- No Public Sector Company shall circulate its financial statements unless the chief executive and the chief financial officer, present the financial statements, duly certified under their respective signatures, for consideration and approval of the audit committee and the Board. The Board shall, after consideration and approval, authorize the signing of financial statements for issuance and circulation.

21. Audit Committee.- (1) The Board shall establish an audit committee, whose members shall be financially literate and majority of them, including its chairman, shall be Independent Non-Executive Directors, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2) of rule 12. The names of members of the audit committee shall be disclosed in each annual report of the Public Sector Company.

(2) The chairman of the Board as well as the chief executive of the Public Sector Company shall not be a member of the audit committee.

(3) The chief financial officer, the chief internal auditor, and a representative of the external auditors shall attend all meetings of the audit committee at which issues relating to accounts and audit are discussed:

Provided that at least once a year, the audit committee shall meet the external auditors without the presence of the chief financial officer, the chief internal auditor and other executives being present, to ensure independent communication between the external auditors and the audit committee:

Provided further that at least once a year, the audit committee shall meet chief internal auditor and other members of the internal audit function without the chief financial officer and the external auditors being present.

(4) The Board shall determine the terms of reference of the audit committee. The terms of reference shall be in writing, specifying the mandate of the audit committee. The audit committee shall have full and explicit authority to investigate any matter within its terms of reference and shall be provided with adequate resources and access to all relevant information.

(5) The audit committee shall, inter-alia, be responsible for recommending to the Board the appointment of external auditors by the Public Sector Company's shareholders and shall consider any questions of resignation or removal of external auditors, audit fees and provision by external auditors of any service to the Public Sector Company in addition to audit of its financial statements. In the absence of strong grounds to proceed otherwise, the Board shall act in accordance with the recommendations of the audit committee in all these matters. However, the Board shall not be deemed to absolve itself of its overall responsibility for the functions delegated to the audit committee.

(6) The terms of reference of the audit committee may also include the following, namely:-

- (a) determination of appropriate measures to safeguard the Public Sector Company's assets;

- (b) review of financial results;
- (c) review of quarterly, half-yearly and annual financial statements of the Public Sector Company, prior to their approval by the Board, focusing on,-
  - (i) major judgment areas;
  - (ii) significant adjustments resulting from the audit;
  - (iii) the going-concern assumption;
  - (iv) any changes in accounting policies and practices; and
  - (v) compliance with applicable accounting standards.

Explanation.- The appropriateness of the use of the going concern assumption in the preparation of the financial statements is generally not in question when auditing Public Sector Company having funding arrangements backed by the Government. However, where such arrangements do not exist, or where Government funding of the Public Sector Company may be withdrawn and the existence of the Public Sector Company may be at risk, International Standards on Auditing provide useful guidance. This issue is increasingly important for Public Sector Companies which have been privatized;

- (d) facilitating the external audit and discussion with external auditors of major observations arising from interim and final audits and any matter that the auditors may wish to highlight (in the absence of management, where necessary);
- (e) review of management letter issued by external auditors and management's response thereto;
- (f) ensuring coordination between the internal and external auditors of the Public Sector Company;
- (g) review of the scope and extent of internal audit and ensuring that the internal audit function has adequate resources and is appropriately placed within the Public Sector Company;
- (h) consideration of major findings of internal investigations and management's response thereto;

- (i) ascertaining that the internal control system including financial and operational controls, accounting system and reporting structure are adequate and effective;
- (j) review of the Public Sector Company's statement on internal control systems prior to endorsement by the Board;
- (k) recommending or approving the hiring or removal of the chief internal auditor;
- (l) instituting special projects, value for money studies or other investigations on any matter specified by the Board, in consultation with the chief executive and to consider remittance of any matter to the external auditors or to any other external body;
- (m) determination of compliance with relevant statutory requirements;
- (n) monitoring compliance with the best practices of corporate governance and identification of significant violations thereof;
- (o) overseeing whistle-blowing policy and protection mechanism; and
- (p) consideration of any other issue or matter as may be assigned by the Board.

(7) The audit committee shall be responsible for managing the relationship of Public Sector Company with the external auditors. In managing the Public Sector Company's relationship with the external auditors on behalf of the Board, the audit committee's responsibilities include,-

- (a) suggesting the appointment of the external auditor to the Board, the audit fee, and any questions of resignation or dismissal;
- (b) considering the objectives and scope of any non-financial audit or consultancy work proposed to be undertaken by the external auditors, and reviewing the remuneration for this work;
- (c) discussing with the external auditors before the audit commences the scope of the audit and the extent of reliance on internal audit and other review agencies;

- (d) discussing with the external auditors any significant issues from the review of the financial statements by the management, and any other work undertaken or overseen by the audit committee;
- (e) reviewing and considering the external auditors' communication with management and management's response thereto; and
- (f) reviewing progress on accepted recommendations from the external auditors.

(8) The recommendations of the audit committee for appointment of retiring auditors or otherwise, as mentioned in sub-rule (7) above, shall be included in the directors' report. In case of a recommendation for change of external auditors before the lapse of three consecutive financial years, the reasons for the same shall be included in the directors' report.

(9) The audit committee shall appoint a secretary of the Committee, who shall circulate minutes of its meetings to the all members, directors and the chief financial officer, within fourteen days of the meeting.

22. Internal Audit.- (1) There shall be an internal audit function in every Public Sector Company. The chief internal auditor, who is the head of the internal audit function in the Public Sector Company, shall be accountable to the audit committee and have unrestricted access to the audit committee.

(2) No person shall be appointed to the position of the chief internal auditor unless he is considered and approved as "fit and proper" for the position by the Audit Committee. No person shall be appointed as the Chief Internal Auditor of a Public Sector Company unless he has five years of relevant audit experience and is a,-

- (a) member of a recognized body of professional accountants; or
- (b) certified internal auditor; or
- (c) certified fraud examiner; or

- (d) certified internal control auditor; or
- (e) person holding a master degree in finance from a university recognized by the Higher Education Commission.

Provided that individuals serving as chief internal auditor of the Public Sector Company for the last five years at the time of coming into force of these rules shall be exempted from the above qualification requirement.

(3) Every Public Sector Company shall ensure that internal audit reports are provided for the review of external auditors. The external auditors shall discuss any major findings in relation to the reports with the audit committee, which shall report matters of significance to the Board.

(4) The internal audit function shall have an audit charter, duly approved by the audit committee and shall work, as far as practicable, in accordance with the standards for the professional practice of internal auditors issued by the Institute of Internal Auditors Inc., (the global professional organization of internal audit profession).

23. External Auditors.- (1) Every Public Sector Company shall ensure that its annual accounts are audited by external auditors, as envisaged under section 252 of the Ordinance. When carrying out audit of a Public Sector Company, the external auditors shall take into account the specific requirements of any other relevant regulations, ordinances or ministerial directives which affect the audit mandate and any special auditing requirements.

(2) In assessing materiality, the external auditor must, in addition to exercising professional judgment, consider any legislation or regulation which may impact that assessment.

(3) The external auditors shall independently report to the shareholders in accordance with statutory and professional requirements. They shall also report to the Board and audit committee the matters of audit interest, as laid down in the International Standards on Auditing.

(4) No Public Sector Company shall appoint as external auditors a firm of auditors which firm or a partner of which firm is non-compliant with the International Federation of Accountants' (IFAC) Guidelines on Code of Ethics, as applicable in Pakistan.

(5) The external auditors shall observe applicable guidelines issued by the International Federation of Accountants with regard to restriction of non-audit services. The audit committee shall also ensure that the external auditors do not perform management functions or make management decisions, responsibility for which remains with the Board and management of the Public Sector Company.

(6) Every Public Sector Company in the financial sector shall change its external auditors every five years. Financial sector, for this purpose, means banks, non-banking finance companies, mutual funds, modarabas, takaful companies and insurance companies. Every Public Sector Company other than those in the financial sector shall, at a minimum, rotate the engagement partner after every five years.

(7) No Public Sector Company shall appoint a person as its chief executive, chief financial officer, chief internal auditor or director who was a partner of the firm of its external auditors (or an employee involved in the audit of the Public Sector Company) at any time during the two years preceding such appointment.

(8) Every Public Sector Company shall require external auditors to furnish a management letter to its Board not later than thirty days from the date of audit report.

24. Compliance with the rules.- (1) Every Public Sector Company shall publish and circulate a statement along with its annual report to set out the status of its compliance with these rules, and shall also file with the Commission and the registrar concerned such statement alongwith its annual report.

(2) Every Public Sector Company shall ensure that the statement of compliance with the rules is reviewed and certified by external auditors, where such compliance can be objectively verified, before publication by the Public Sector Company.

(3) Where the Commission is satisfied that it is not practicable to comply with any of these rules, the Commission may, for reasons to be recorded, relax the same subject to such conditions as it may deem fit to impose.

25. Penalty for contravention of the rules.- Whoever fails or refuses to comply with, or contravenes any provision of these rules, or knowingly and willfully authorises or permits such failure, refusal or contravention shall, in addition to any other liability under the Ordinance, be punishable with fine and, in the case of continuing failure, to a further fine, as provided in sub-section (2) of section 506 of the Ordinance.
